ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Toronto Symphony Orchestra, Director of Education & Community Engagement 2018 - 2021

Led the Toronto Symphony Orchestra's education and community engagement programs, including several concert series performed for over 50,000 people annually, the Toronto Symphony Youth Orchestra, Mornings with the TSO, and a variety of community engagement activities.

Key accomplishments:

- Developed, programmed, and implemented School Concerts for grades K-12 (35,000 students/year). Oversaw the creation and distribution of teacher resource materials, including study guides, lesson plans, and podcasts.
- Created Young People's Concerts for families (15,000 patrons/year), including lobby activations related to on-stage content.
- Authored a robust, multi-phase community engagement strategy for the TSO that was adopted by senior management and the board, leading to several multi-million dollar gifts.
- Piloted the TSO's first-ever Relaxed Performance for neurodiverse children and their families, generating significant media interest while serving an audience that had been previously left out. Grew the series to two concerts after the pilot year, and three in the third year.
- Advocated, recruited, and negotiated a new position for Principal Education Conductor & Community Ambassador, one of the first positions of its kind in North America.
- Organized the first-ever visit by musicians of the TSO to federal correctional facilities.
- Nurtured relationships with community stakeholders, including grassroots organizers, teaching artists, school board arts coordinators, and donors.
- Oversaw the general operations of the Toronto Symphony Youth Orchestra, one of Canada's leading orchestral training opportunities for young musicians.

New Brunswick Youth Orchestra, Sistema NB Centre Director 2011 - 2018

Oversaw the launch and development of Sistema New Brunswick's second centre, located in Saint John, New Brunswick. Was responsible for programming a daily after school program for socioeconomically disadvantaged children. Led a team of 19 teaching artists, 6 educational assistants, and roughly 50 volunteers.

Key accomplishments:

- Grew centre from 35 students in its first year to over 200 students in year 6
- Adapted management needs as team grew from 6 to 25 staff
- Managed annual budget of over $700,000
- Developed relationships and partnerships with community stakeholders, from funders to school district superintendents, to other community groups working with low-income communities
- Organized large concert events involving multiple orchestras, hundreds of children, and dozens of professional staff
- Coordinated visits by major international artists (Measha Bruegggosman, National Arts Centre Orchestra)
- Delivered fundraising proposals to prospective funders, leading to major gifts
- Represented Sistema NB in frequent press interviews (printed, television, radio) and public appearances
- Researched and implemented student and instrument management software across provincial program (8 centres)
- Recruited and interviewed Teaching Artists from across Canada and abroad
- Conducted yearly performance reviews for all staff
- Led weekly staff and faculty meetings and monthly professional development workshops for all staff

Community MusicWorks, Fellow

2009 - 2011

Worked in a tight-knit, collaborative team of teaching artists, using music performance and education as a tool for social change. Performed a variety of day-to-day operational roles within the organization. Coordinated Community MusicWorks' summer camp database, researching and negotiating scholarships on behalf of our students. Transitioned organization from ad hoc tools to Google's cloud-based G-Suite, migrating emails, calendars, and documents.

Houston Youth Symphony, Operations Manager

2007 - 2008

Worked with staff to coordinate the weekly activities of one of the United States' largest and oldest Youth Orchestras. Acted as a liaison between artistic and administrative staff and organized weekly rehearsals involving four orchestras and over 300 students. Developed the position of Operations Manager into a full-time position.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Sistema New Brunswick, Centre Director

2011 - 2018

Violin instructor and string orchestra conductor in a daily after school program for socioeconomically disadvantaged children.
